

PreKindergarten Social Studies - PreKindergarten students at St. Patrick's will begin to develop an understanding of social relationships, self control, and knowledge of families and communities that impact their lives. The students will learn about their immediate environment and begin to expand their knowledge about relationships to others.

	Standards/Goals	Instructional Tools	Assessment Tools
PreK.1 Social Relationships	a. Receives social support and loyalty to a friend. b. Solves problems with others independently. c. Shows awareness of and responds to feelings of others. d. Knows how to join a group.	Provide opportunities for children to listen and talking with others. Provide opportunities and support for children develop relationships with peers and adults.	Teacher observation Provide means of physically working off frustrations.
PreK.2 Self Control	a. Child follows rules and routines of the program b. Child expresses feelings and concern for others.	Teacher models and help children recognize feelings and appropriate ways to express them. Books	Teacher observation Establish a trusting, caring relationship with each child.
PreK.3 Families & Communities	a. Children understand similarities and differences among adults and children in the classroom, home and community. B.Children expresses some understanding of familiar locations in the community such as parks, fire department, restaurants and stores.	Books Role Playing	Teacher Observation