

Catholic Leadership Institute

June 10-15, 2012

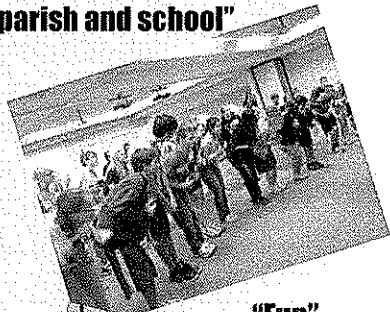

An experience of a lifetime!

"Amazing"

"I am now ready to help my parish and school"

"Fun"

"Nothing I have ever experienced before"

What is CLI?

Catholic Leadership Institute is a week-long program that helps young people develop leadership skills in Catholic Youth Ministry. The goals of CLI are:

- To learn skills for leadership in ministry
- To practice leadership skills
- To grow in awareness of personal leadership abilities
- To plan and participate in prayer services and liturgical celebrations

Where is CLI?

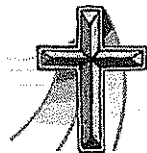

CLI is held at Wayne State College in Wayne, NE

Who can attend CLI?

CLI is for young people going into their Sophomore to Senior years who have an interest in helping with their parish or school youth ministry programs. It is best for at least two youth to come from a parish/school.

What is the cost?

The cost for the week is $225 which covers room, board, program materials and t-shirt.

"Do not let anyone look down upon you because you are young, but be an example for the believers in your speech, your conduct, your love, your faith and your purity."

(1 Timothy 4:12)

"I learned so many life skills"

"It was great being with new people"

"Awesome masses and prayer"

"I learned while having fun"

ARCHDIOCESE of OMAHA

"Our Catholic youth are already valued members of our Church, and we will look to them for leadership in families and parishes in the future. The Catholic Leadership Institute in the Archdiocese of Omaha provides important training for our young leaders. I hope that parish youth ministers, as well as high school campus ministers, will encourage qualified youth to participate".

Archbishop George J. Lucas
